GSR School is a free informative workshop where you will learn how to be the best General Service Representative (GSR) for your group. Attendance is open to all interested members of AA. You will experience helpful presentations by trusted servants with experience and suggestions to share about general service. Get all your questions answered!

What you can expect...

- How to get organized
- How to give a report to your home group
- How to get your group registered
- How the GSR participates in District meetings and Area 23 Assemblies
- How to use literature as an effective tool
- How money and spirituality mix

See you there!
